I Wish
(Group Poem)

I wish I spoke another language
I wish for a candy-filled house
I wish my brother wasn't a jerk I wish I was made out of gold I wish I was made out of rainbows I wish I could use the force
I wish I had a mountain of baby portabella mushrooms
I wish that I could have a million donuts
I wish for the perfect pair of winter socks
I wish I could have a girlfriend
I wish for a mansion
I wish for an apple full of worms
I wish I could poop M & Ms
I wish I could be a character in Minecraft I wish I could kick a ball at someone I wish I had infinity wishes

Book Report
by Miradi

I saw a huge ugly mountain
I moved a big store car
And it was pretty easy Help I am being robbed by a robber!

I stood and said "Justice is honor" Help what is 15 x 15 = ?
I don't know, what is 15 x 15?
Do I know what is 2 x 24?

In my mind 2 x 24= 48!
I like Math!
This is my book report Behind you there is a lion

In my mind I have an idea
At the moment we could kill the lion
All you have to do is bring a knife
All of you, in this class

Sticks, Sticks

by Rayan

Sticks, sticks against a wall, a painted wall painted by the sun. A self portrait by the sun.
Trees behind the fence, the sky. Sunflower buds in the fence & one can.

Infinity
by Quentin

This story has no ending!
There are no limits!
There is no stop to the story!
There is nobody that can stop it.
I talk about how nobody can stop it.
I give people warnings about it.
I tell my mom about it but nobody believes me.
And my dad doesn't listen either.
And of course my brother doesn't either.
And my sister!
And this story is about to begin . . .
And the End

Is Like
by Ravit

Summer is like a whole season in an oven

A big wave is like a big hill towering over you

A vacuum is like a black hole

A mountain is like an upside-down V

A diamond is like a shiny rock

The moon is like a pie

A wet dog is like stinky

A table is like a picnic bench

Crumpled paper is like loud

Wet paper is like rippable

Awesomeness
by Marion

I saw a water shining like awesomeness, I moved toward the awesome water, and it exploded in my face.
Help me!

I stood straight waiting 4 hours later,
Help me!
I don't like water,
Do I?

In my world everything's awesome.
I like sparkles, this is awesome.
Behind me is awesomeness,

in my head like a melody, at the bottom,
all is cool.
I'm glad I'm alive.

Thoughts
by Emily

I see the school "Exit" sign

I hear my friend Marion whispering into my ear

I feel my (not so) friend Kaiden pulling on my jacket

I taste the bitterness of the water

I smell the end of day

(No I Don't!)

by Rayan

I wish my hair was cloudy with dandruff (no I don't!) I wish we had more literacy time (no I don't!) I wish we had Playworks five times a week (no I don't!) I wish I had gotten five shots at the doctor today (no I don't!) I'm embarrassed!

Everything Is
by Quentin

Summer is like magma flowing up a volcano.

A vacuum is like an earthquake.

A mountain is like a rocket.

A diamond is like a pacifier.

The moon is like cheese.

A wet dog is like a dumpster.

A star is like one wish.

Mud is like chocolate.

Chocolate is like an explosion in my mouth.

A bomb is like a basketball.

The Duck
by Emily

I saw a duck.
I moved away
And it came closer.
Help!

I stood there crying.
Help!
I don't know what to do.
Do I just scream and run?

In my pants there is mud.
I like chocolate.
This is scary.
Behind me is the duck.

In my phone is 911.
At the police station
All the people are evil.
All are ducks.

Halloween

by Ravit

This is Halloween
There is my costume hanging in the closet
There I sit staring at my costume
There I stand hanging up the decorations I talk and say "what a night it is"
I give my mom all the extra decorations I tell her what a night it is
And she says "I agree"
And then I go to my room and put on my costume
She yells it's time to go And I say "got it, mom"
And as we walk I see all the houses
And all their decorations I love all of them And then I hear the leaves rustle
And a squirrel comes down the tree
I thought it was a monster

Fall
by Miradi

There are leaves falling down. Football season is here. Get your coat and go to school.

I am going to tell you who is the cute girl in the school

Yes

wish I would be an apple that is rotten. I wish she would be my best friend.

I Wish
by Emily

I wish I could have dogs so that I could breed them so that I could sell them so that I could make money so that I could buy a donkey so that I could name it Husky the fish so that I could play Minecraft so that I could have a YouTube page so that I could play with Sky and friends so that I could have butter

Cow
by Emily

I wish Colorado was the color blue. I wish gold was the color of stew.
I wish that brown was not a frown cow!

My Mansion
by Marion

This is my mansion
There are rich people everywhere
There are dogs and cats made out of gold There are millions of dollars in my bank account I talk to my money sometimes because I'm rich
I give my money advice
I tell my friends they can have a million bucks
And they jumped off a cliff And then they climbed back up And as that was happening we saw two people playing together And that was like weird
And then chicken butt
And there was a happy ending

by Quentin

I wish I had paper socks . . .
also I wish they had rocket boosters on them. I wish I had loud glue.

DPT
by Quentin

The dog was walking through the park and at the same time carrying a tennis ball.

Things Renamed
by Rayan

Summer is like a game.

A wave is like a friend taunting you to join them.

A vacuum is like a whirlpool.

A mountain is like the letter ay.

A diamond is like a glittery rose.

The moon is like a face.

A wet dog is like mold.

A pen is like a skirt.

children playing 24-7, and me.

BFF
by Emily

This is my best friend
There is a girl that is awesome
There is a girl that is sweet
There is a girl that is nice I talk to her
I give her my friendship
I tell her almost anything
And she won't judge me
She is very mind
And sweet
And kool with a "K"
And has a great personality And gets along with my friends (kind of)
And cares for me
And she is a great friend

Los Angeles
by Rayan

I saw fruit trees so I moved toward them and it moved toward me. Uh tree?
Help, trees have me prisoner!

3 hours later . . .

I stood in the jail cell shouting Help! Help!
I don't know what I did!
Do I know what I did?

In my whole life this has never happened.
I like trees.
This is crazy!
Behind the door? MOMMY!

In my whole life at the door, Mommy!
All my family!
All my family!

Friend

by Miradi

This is the story about Miradi and There is my friend
There is ketchup on her face
There is mustard on my face I talk to her for a second I tell her my blue feelings And what do I mean blue feelings?
And she's good at doodling
She likes helping me write And we are eating
And we jump on the tables
And she almost fell
And I saved her
And she hugged me

Random
by Emily

Summer is like peanut butter. I hate it.

The ocean wave is like the earth's toilet.

A vacuum is loud and makes my cat scream.

A mountain is like ice cream.

A diamond is very special in Minecraft.

The moon is like a butt.

A wet dog is like my mom's feet.

A cupcake is like a Twinkie.

Ice Cream
by Quentin

I saw Billy Bob Joe Jr.
I moved Larry the Caveman and it engraved a text message.
"Help me!" said Stan the ice cream man.

I stood there and said, "John is here!"
"Help me!" Stan the ice cream man said again.
I don't want to save you freak, I just want ice cream.
"Do I have to give you ice cream?" Stan the ice cream man said.

In my truck I have a bazinga machine.
"I like bazinga," said John.
This is stupid, I want ice cream!
Behind the truck there is ice cream.

In my car there is Larry the caveman, he will help.
At the truck I saw it.
All ice cream!
All my life I have wanted ice cream and now I have it.
YESSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSS

Winter
by Miradi

If I were in winter
I would be ice
I would be ice
and melt on everybody
I would be ice
and be mean to everybody in our class
I would be ice
I would tell people to be nice to me and really nice If I would be ice I would be respectful to everybody in our class the end

Tree in the Winter

by Ravit

I am a tree
I am cold and white with snow People climb on me they pull on my branches
One time I was icy and cold

Now I am wet and now icy

The Life of a Snowflake

by Quentin

On a normal day it is cold and wet
I usually just float in the sky everyday
It is hard to be a snowflake because you can't move But people are very nice to you Because everybody likes snow
It feels very bad when people sled on you That is the life of a snowflake

Summer
by Miradi

Summer is like a zombie house

A wave is like a water moving

A vacuum is like a toilet flushing

A mountain is like poop

A diamond is like gold

The moon is like

A wet dog is like a cat

Chocolate is like a delicious crazy candy

Bubble gum is like really delicious

A ball is like a muffin

An elephant is like a huge, stinky animal

Blue, All About It

by Rayan

Blue is denim Blue is like purple but since purple has red in it, it makes a whole different color.
Blue is like Lindsay because she's mostly happy.
Sometimes I'm more like a yellow or a red because I'm either hyper or in "kill my brother" mode.
Once I went on a road trip to Bend and I saw so many blue things:
waterfalls, the sky,
the stars at night.

Blue
by Marion

Blue is like the sky

Blue is like waterfalls

Blue is epic!

Blue is the color of my face

Blue is my favorite color

Once I looked at the sky and saw blue

Once at Mt. Scott swimming pool I was swimming and there was a whirl pool and I went around and around and around.

Blue Blank Blue

Blue is a beautiful color
I guess
Blue is like a color of the rainbow Blue is like a sparkling diamond Once I walked from a tree and I became blue Then when I walked from another house the house turned blue too
Blue is comfortable
Blue is like the sky that changes from blue to orange during a sunset
The sound of blue is like a twinkling star klang klang kling Blue is like a frame of a picture

Green
by Ravit

Green is like grass
Green is my favorite color
Green is the color of my brother's eyes Once I went sailing and the water was green Green is the color of my jacket If green made a sound it would be peaceful and quiet Green makes me feel happy and calm like the ocean Green is the color of the exit sign

Neon Green
by Quentin

The color neon green is the color of our Grout T-shirt

It is like yellow with a slight punch of green

The color neon green is like a sunset above the ocean

Once I was walking and I saw a biker riding a neon green bike

Yellow is green, green is yellow green and yellow make neon
green

Neon green is the color your face turns when you get pneumonoultramicroscopicsilicovolcanoconioses

Neon green is oozy acid that can make you turn into dust

It makes me feel happy but sad, so bored

Black
by Emily

Black is Awesome
Black is like the sky
Black is dark
Same as the dog I saw last week Once I was playing a game and I saw a black sun
Black pairs up with any other color Black is very popular for goth and emo people Black is like the back ground

I Dream
(Group Poem)

I dream that I am a shape shifter that had a chocolate house

I dream about playing together

I dream that I have a wolf

I dream about you and you and you

I dream I had a house full of M & Ms

I dream about going to Macy's at the Lloyd Center with my whole family & Ms. Black

I dream that we could go outside

Thanks for Reading!
